

Aliko and Ambai

Tuesday 15 May 6–8pm

Speaker

Theresa Meki

Assistant Producer, Aliko and Ambai and current PhD Candidate, ANU

Location

Weston Theatre

Level 1, JG Crawford Building 132
Lennox Crossing, ANU

Registration at crawford.anu.edu.au/events

E cleo.fleming@anu.edu.au

T 02 6125 9181

This forum is free and open to the public.

Donations on the night will be gratefully received to assist with entering the film into international festivals.

Presented by

Development Policy
Centre

Crawford School of Public Policy

ANU College of Asia & the Pacific

Image courtesy of Mark Eby

Aliko and Ambai is a new feature film from Papua New Guinea that takes its audience into the world of two young women navigating the hurdles of poverty, violence, forced marriage and abuse as they endeavour to build a future for themselves.

The film was produced by the Centre for Social and Creative Media at the University of Goroka.

The making of the film engaged young, talented Papua New Guineans interested in writing, producing, and directing.

Both the production project and the film have the aim of inspiring young people to overcome the obstacles in their lives and persevere to reach their goals.

The screening will be followed by a Q&A with Assistant Producer, Theresa Meki.

This event is supported by CARE Australia, Femili PNG, Buk Bilong Pikinini, PNG Canberra Student Association and Capital Wantoks.

The film screening is presented as part of the Development Policy Centre's PNG Project, which receives funding from the Australian Aid Program through the Pacific Governance and Leadership Precinct.

Further information about the Development Policy Centre:
devpolicy.anu.edu.au